

VISIT MAORI DELEGATION TO UNIVERSIDAD EXTERNADO DE COLOMBIA

June 28th, 2023 – Bogotá, D. C., Colombia

9:00a.m. – 4:00p.m.

Venue: H507

Language: English

Hosts at UExternado:

School of Social and Human Sciences

Directorate of International Affairs – DIRE UExt

Own economies and indigenous business, a global conversation between Colombia and New Zealand

AGENDA

1. (9:00a.m. – 9:10a.m.) Welcoming words: Jorge Martínez Cotrina. Dean Faculty of Human and Social Sciences – Dr. Giovanni Anzola-Pardo. Director of International Affairs.
2. (9:10a.m. – 9:50a.m.) Campus Tour
3. (10:00a.m. – 11:00a.m.) UExTalk: Own economies in Colombia and the Māori community

Māori Delegation: How are indigenous businesses? What are the business bets nowadays? Own economies. (30 minutes)

UExt Delegation: Multicultural Interactions Program. How are the own economies in indigenous population?

Experience of projects in La Guajira, Pacific coast and Yukpa Case. (30 minutes)

4. (11:00a.m. – 12:30p.m.) Open Dialogue with researchers and faculty members of the School of Social and Human Sciences; Multicultural Interactions Program, Anthropology, Sociology. Explore collaborative scenarios.
5. (2:00p.m. – 4:00p.m.) Visit to the Eastern – Center Territorial Project: “EGIPTO” neighborhood / Vereda Fátima. Meeting and interaction with border urban-rural local communities.